PRESIDENT'S CORNER

As I write, we are just a day away from AAUW's 50th Annual Bookfair, and Cobb members have signed up with Peg Montgomery to work and work and work! Thanks, everybody. Together we will make 2009's Bookfair a huge success.

No resting on our laurels for us, though, as our first Mansour Center meeting is coming up on October 13, 2009. Pam Flournoy has put together a top-notch panel on Health Care Reform. We have a physician, a nursing professor, a person from AARP, and a person who works with the Georgia Association of Health Underwriters. We are focusing on how the proposals in Congress will affect us here in Georgia. It's a timely topic, and we have a great panel. Now, it's at 7:00 p.m., at the Mansour Center (see the map attached), and we hope everybody can attend. Something new: because the Mansour Center will prepare our refreshments, I need to have an idea of how many of us will be there. Call me (770-973-4498) or e-mail me (wemills@bellsouth.net) by the Friday before, which will be October 9th, to count you in. (Of course, life happens, and if you can't make it after responding in the affirmative, no terrible thing will befall you - scout's honor.)

We will be welcoming three new members Denise Bossarte, Flora Perkins and Pat Ritsema this month, too. If you know someone who might be a prospective new member, this Health Care Reform meeting should be a good introduction to us.

See you at Bookfair!
Shirley

In Memoriam
Frances O'Connell
July 6, 1916 - September 6, 2009

Sylvia Goodyear, Peg Montgomery, Shirley Mills, Maria Wilson and Debbie Karvey were able to attend a memorial service for Fran O'Connell on Friday, September 11th. It was a time of tenderness and loving remembrance of an AAUW member that embodied the spirit of our mission. Fran was a lifelong educator and a long time fighter for women's rights. Although frail in body, she was feisty in spirit ... we will miss her.

Our sympathy is extended to our member Kathy Brooke who lost her father on August 21st.

“You must learn from the mistakes of others, you can’t possibly live long enough to make them all yourself.”
