

NOVEMBER 2019 NEWSLETTER

BRANCH MEETINGS:

Due to scheduling conflicts, there will not be a branch meeting in November. We will resume programs and branch meetings in the New Year. Details will be provided as we host speakers on the census, public policy activities and other programs of interest to our group. Winter meetings, when scheduled, will be in the afternoon. Bookroom Second Saturday Cobb Crew will resume in the New Year as well.

BOOKFAIR UPDATES AND CELEBRATION:

Our milestone 60th AAUW Atlanta Bookfair was well received and heralded another successful partnership with Perimeter Mall and branch volunteers. Income and volunteer hours will be finalized soon. At this time, pending adjustments, it looks like Cobb volunteers contributed 20% of the hours. We don't have final figures yet, but we should receive proceeds that will allow us to sponsor two scholarships through Chattahoochee Tech Foundation. There will be an AAUW Atlanta Bookfair Steering Committee Meeting on November 12th with final details and distribution of proceeds available at that time. We are so grateful to the many volunteer hours and many ways our membership contributes to this annual fundraiser. Thank you!

There will be a brunch on December 8th at Marlow's Tavern in Dunwoody to share stories and celebrate a milestone book fair. The brunch is from 2 to 4 PM and all volunteers are invited to attend. Cobb volunteers should let Debbie Karvey know if they plan to attend at

678-520-2231 or debbiedah@msn.com

COBB HOLIDAY CELEBRATION:

Big thanks go out to Barbara Blue who has organized our annual holiday concert and dinner for Sunday, December 15th. The RUMC Christmas Festival Concert is at 3:00 PM. Tickets are free ... please contact Barbara after November 11th when tickets will be available and let her know if you would like to attend. You may contact her at: blu16br@gmail.com or at: 404-971-0988.

Please also let Barbara know if you plan to celebrate the holiday together over dinner. This year we will gather at 5:00 PM at The Big Ketch Saltwater Grill in Roswell. The restaurant is located at 1105 Canton Street (close to the Fickle Pickle.)

Additional announcements about upcoming events will be sent via e-mail.

Enjoy the holidays!!
